

Part-Time Non-Tenure Track Lecturer Position: Division of Restorative Dentistry, UCLA School of Dentistry

The UCLA School of Dentistry invites applications for a part-time, non-tenure track Lecturer position in the Division of Restorative Dentistry. The non-tenure track position is renewable on a yearly basis. The Division of Restorative Dentistry is specifically looking for a Part-Time Non-Tenure Lecturer who is available to teach a half or a full day, either on Tuesdays, Wednesdays or Thursdays only.

The position will have primary responsibilities in the predoctoral didactic, bench and clinical teaching programs. Qualifications include DDS/DMD degree and a California Dental License. The candidate will be expected to work on a volunteer basis from the beginning of the hiring date, to at least six months and up to one full year, at which time students' evaluations of said Lecturer will be reviewed to be considered for a paid position. Other criteria may come into consideration such as good standing with peers and commitment to teaching. Salary is commensurate with education and experience.

UCLA seeks candidates whose experience, teaching, research, or community service has prepared them to contribute to our commitment to diversity and excellence. UCLA is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, national origin, disability, or protected veteran status.

Applications will be reviewed upon receipt and accepted until the position is filled. Applicants should submit a letter of application, curriculum vitae, and the names of three references to Steven Shaevel, Academic Personnel Director, via UCLA Recruit <https://recruit.apo.ucla.edu/apply/JPF00194>.
